PUBLIC TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2025

CKD Infraestructura México

Generated 24-11-2025

About this report

PRI reporting is the largest global reporting project on responsible investment.

It was developed with investors, for investors. PRI signatories are required to report publicly on their responsible investment activities each year. In turn, they receive a number of outputs, including a public and private Transparency Report.

The public Transparency Reports, which are produced using signatories' reported information, provide accountability and support signatories to have internal discussions about their practices and to discuss these with their clients, beneficiaries, and other stakeholders. This public Transparency Report is an export of the signatory's responses to the PRI Reporting Framework during the 2025 reporting period. It includes the signatory's responses to core indicators, as well as responses to plus indicators that the signatory has agreed to make public.

In response to signatory feedback, the PRI has not summarised signatories' responses – the information in this document is presented exactly as it was reported.

For each of the indicators in this document, all options selected by the signatory are presented, including links and qualitative responses. In some indicators, all applicable options are included for additional context.

Disclaimers

Legal Context

PRI recognises that the laws and regulations to which signatories are subject differ by jurisdiction. We do not seek or require any signatory to take an action that is not in compliance with applicable laws. All signatory responses should therefore be understood to be subject to and informed by the legal and regulatory context in which the signatory operates.

Responsible investment definitions

Within the PRI Reporting Framework Glossary, we provide definitions for key terms to guide reporting on responsible investment practices in the Reporting Framework. These definitions may differ from those used or proposed by other authorities and regulatory bodies due to evolving industry perspectives and changing legislative landscapes. Users of this report should be aware of these variations, as they may impact interpretations of the information provided.

Data accuracy

This document presents information reported directly by signatories in the 2025 reporting cycle. This information has not been audited by the PRI or any other party acting on its behalf. While this information is believed to be reliable, no representations or warranties are made as to the accuracy of the information presented.

The PRI has taken reasonable action to ensure that data submitted by signatories in the reporting tool is reflected in their official PRI reports accurately. However, it is possible that small data inaccuracies and/or gaps remain, and the PRI shall not be responsible or liable for such inaccuracies and gaps.

Section 1. Our commitment

■ Why does your organisation engage in responsible investment?
■ What is your organisation's overall approach to responsible investment, and what major responsible investment commitment(s) have you made?

1. We understand that following responsible investment principles is crucial to ensuring the long-term sustainability of our investments. We believe it is fundamental to analyse and monitor ESG factors in order to prevent or mitigate material risks and maximise results. We understand that it is not enough to focus on quantitative metrics; there are also qualitative factors that provide a deeper understanding of the asset's situation and its ability to endure over time. Sustainability is part of our strategy, and we aim to integrate it into every possible area and process across the two funds we manage.
2. Our sustainability strategy is to deliver attractive returns for investors and pensioners through a responsible and sustainable approach to investments and asset management. We define the following values as the foundation for achieving this strategy: adaptability, integration, responsibility, collaboration, transparency, and commitment. The strategic pillars of our approach include the ESG development of assets, ESG analysis of investments, strong corporate governance, and talent management.
This strategy is implemented within a solid governance framework and by integrating our vision into internal manuals and operational processes. We have replicated this approach in our two vehicles CKD IM and FIBRAeMX. Following our strategy, we conducted a double materiality assessment to define the most relevant issues for stakeholders that we, as a fund manager, must prioritize. The assestment identified the following key issues: (i) ESG evaluation of assets, (ii) sustainable investments, (iii) regulatory compliance, (iv) business performance and resilience, and (v) climate change. These issues will serve as our priorities, though we recognise that other topics may also require attention. Furthermore, we understand that this assessment is dynamic and will need to be periodically updated. As part of this process, we analysed which SDGs we could be contributing to, given that infrastructure assets - by their very nature-have a systemic impact. The value creation generated by our strategy, in terms of economic , social , and environmental impact, is aligned with the following SDGs:
8.10 Strengthen the capacity of domestic financial institutions to encourage and expand access to banking, financial, and insurance services for all. 9.1 Develop quality, reliable, sustainable, and resilient infrastructure, including regional and transborder infrastructure, to support economic development and human well-being, with a focus on affordable and equitable access for all. 1.4 By 2030, ensure that all men and women, particularly the poor and the vulnerable, have equal rights to economic resources, as well as access to basic services, ownership and control over land and other forms of property, inheritance, natural resources, appropriate new technology, and financial services, including microfinance. 8.5 By 2030, achieve full and productive employment and decent work for all women and men, including young people and persons with disabilities, and equal pay for work of equal value. 7.2 By 2030, increase substantially the share of renewable energy in the global energy mix. 13.2 Integrate climate change measures into national policies, strategies, and planning.
Following the double materiality assessment, we developed a portfolio of 12 projects, including, among others, the ESG reporting procedure, organisational compliance structure, and ongoing ESG monitoring of the assets, etc.to be implemented by 2026. Each project includes between six and eleven activities for its execution. In addition, we are promoting that each asset conducts its own materiality assessment in order to enable a more accurate ESG evaluation.

Section 2. Annual overview

■ Discuss your organisation's progress during the reporting year on the responsible investment issue you consider most relevant or material to your organisation or its assets.
■ Reflect on your performance with respect to your organisation's responsible investment objectives and targets during the reporting year. Details might include, for example, outlining your single most important achievement or describing your general progress on topics such as the following (where applicable):
• refinement of ESG analysis and incorporation
• stewardship activities with investees and/or with policymakers
• collaborative engagements
• attainment of responsible investment certifications and/or awards

In 2024, we launched our training programme aimed at executives and board members. The programme is designed to raise awareness among directors, board members, and key personnel on sustainability-related issues. It consists of five sessions, as follows: our training programme aimed at executives and board members. The programme is designed to raise awareness among directors, board members, and key personnel on sustainability-related issues. It consists of five sessions, as follows:
1. Understanding Corporate Sustainability
2. The Role of FIBRAeMX and CKD IM in Climate Change
3. Climate Change Mitigation
4. Climate Governance
5. Social Responsibility in Business and Navigating the New Era of Sustainability Reporting Throughout the year, we remained committed to continuous improvement. Some of the key achievements include:
• Assets are developing their own materiality studies based on our recommendation.
• Follow-up on ESG KPIs of the assets: we are standardizing the methodologies of the ESG indicators.
• Risk Assessment: we conducted an important risk mapping exercise at both the management level and the companies we invest in. Our internal control consultant supports us in reviewing these risk matrices.
• Implementation of an information security management system (ISO 27001 and 27002) and training of 100% of employees on cybersecurity issues.
• Implementation of sustainable strategy for both CKD IM and FIBRAeMX.
We began reviewing the Sustainability-Linked Loan Principles (SLLP) published by the Loan Market Association (LMA) and the Sustainability-Linked Bond Principles (SLBP) issued by the International Capital Market Association (ICMA), with the objective of identifying Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) that are central, relevant, and material to our industry, as well as defining Sustainability Performance Targets (SPTs) that are ambitious and aligned with FIBRAeMX's overarching sustainability strategy. We also initiated the analysis for the development of FIBRAeMX's Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework. In summary, our journey in 2024 was marked by a firm commitment to integrating ESG principles into our operations, training employees, and sustainability-focused initiatives, following our mission of responsible investment practices.

Section 3. Next steps

■ What specific steps has your organisation outlined to advance your commitment to responsible investment in the next two years?

We will focus on working on the portfolio of 12 projects, each of which has 6 to 11 activities. Some of these projects and activities are:
1. Internal ESG evaluation of new investment opportunities.
2. ESG monitoring of assets: GRESB requests, which relies on best practices in the infrastructure sector. c. Implement training sessions for the team on ESG evaluation criteria and methodology. d. Update the asset management manual to include ESG evaluation procedures and criteria. e. Create an ESG asset evaluation questionnaire based on the previously defined framework. f. Define commitments and incentives to improve the ESG performance of the assets. g. Collect data on the environmental, social, and governance performance of the assets with the support of the questionnaire. Recommendation: Establish the strengthening of the ESG risk matrices of the assets and the double materiality analyses of the assets as mandatory requirements, request action plans on ESG topics, budgets, and controls, and align the portfolio with the Sustainable Development Goals. h. Analyze ESG risks and opportunities associated with each asset and identify areas for improvement. i. Establish commitments and design specific plans to improve the ESG performance of the corresponding assets. j. Regular monitoring and supervision of the ESG performance of the assets. Explore specialized software for data management to manage the ESG information of the assets and investments. k. Integrate information on the ESG performance of the assets into the report.
a. Review previously defined sector materiality to identify ESG criteria to be evaluated. b. Create an evaluation framework based on GRESB and UNPRI to compile information on each of the assets. It is very important to develop specific requirements for each of the topics, mainly what
3. ESG reporting procedure: the standards or frameworks to be used for sustainability reporting are GRI, IFRS S1 and S2, and UNPRI. Although UNPRI is specifically reported, it is good practice to integrate all information into a single document.
4. Compliance organizational structure.
5. Career plan.

6. Effective corporate governance.
7. Information Security Management System.
8. Training program.
9. Comprehensive health plan.
10. Climate risk analysis by asset.
a. Research and selection of specialized climate risk consultants. b. Define parameters and methodologies to be used in the climate risk analysis (based on TCFD). c. Monitor the specific analysis process of the consultant. d. Prioritize risks based on the analysis results. e. Design specific strategies to mitigate the identified risks. f. Define adaptation and mitigation measures in the action plans. g. Design KPIs to monitor the effectiveness of mitigation strategies. h. Implement mitigation strategies. i. Incorporate results into the sustainability report. j. Train internal staff on actions needed to mitigate climate risks.
11. Environmental responsibility program.
12. Volunteering and philanthropy program.

We report to the SIEFOREs (Specialised Investment Funds for Retirement Savings) that have allocated resources to our investment vehicles. Cosequently, we indirectly contribute to the implementation of the Disposiciones de Carácter General Aplicables a los Fondos de Inversión in Mexico. For our 2025 report, we will also be subject to the Disposiciones de Carácter General Aplicables a las Emisoras de Valores (General Provisions Applicable to Securities Issuers), under which the voluntary reporting aligned with IFRS S1 and S2 standards will become applicable. As such, we are preparing to align our disclosures with these emerging sustainability-related financial reporting requirements.

CLIMATE CHANGE

Indicator	Type of indicator	Dependent on	Gateway to	Disclosure	Subsection	PRI Principle
PGS 41	CORE	N/A	PGS 41.1	PUBLIC	Climate change	General

Has your organisation identified climate-related risks and opportunities affecting your investments?

☑ (A) Yes, within our standard planning horizon

Specify the risks and opportunities identified and your relevant standard planning horizon:

90% of one of our fund´s portfolio is invested in renewable energy, consisting in 5 wind farms and 3 solar farms in Mexico. Our country faces an enormous challenge to reduce carbon emissions, which presents a great opportunity to us to contribute to this objective. We are currently navigating regulatory changes that complicate optimal performance in the energy market, but the importance of tackling climate change is so strong that we believe there will be vast opportunities in this industry. We have identified the following risks for the renewable farms: (a) Natural disaster driven damages: such as electric storms, fires or floodings that may directly damage the equipment and energy output; (b) Non compliance with MIA agreements or reforestation targets: failure to maintain up to date "Medición de Impacto Ambiental ("MIA") requirements, potentially receiving warnings up to an eventual permit revocation. The main climate risks related to roads are natural disasters such as floods or earthquakes. Also, to be able to meet the GHG emissions reduction targets, there is a risk of not being able to purchase enough renewable energy in the country.

Does your organisation integrate climate-related risks and opportunities affecting your investments in its overall investment strategy, financial planning and (if relevant) products?

◉ (A) Yes, our overall investment strategy, financial planning and (if relevant) products integrate climate-related risks and opportunities

Describe how climate-related risks and opportunities have affected or are expected to affect your investment strategy, financial planning and (if relevant) products:

Climate-related risks are considered at the investment process stage as well as an ongoing procurement process for environmental impact studies and mitigation activities from the Asset Management standpoint. When conducting asset's due diligence, we check for energy and water consumption, and pollution or waste management depending on the business activities. We also look for potential environmental events that could impact the integrity of the asset's infrastructure, stakeholders and business continuity. If we find a relevant risk that could alter the course of the business and we decide to invest in this company anyway, we then keep close monitoring through risk management process and, if needed, capex and opex expenditures are planned within the budget to prevent material impacts. In this sense, we believe that considering climate risks at our portfolio and fund level strategies creates value for our investors and more even for all our stakeholders by having best-in-class infrastructure.

Does your organisation have a process to identify, assess, and manage the climate-related risks (potentially) affecting your investments?

☑ (A) Yes, we have a process to identify and assess climate-related risks

(1) Describe your process

1. Regarding the different potential risks found during thedue diligence process, we follow up with an analysis of the continuity or updating of those risks.
2. Using up-to-date scientific information on regional and local climate risks, we consider extreme climate events such as floods, droughts, storms and changes in temperature patterns. We evaluate how weather events can directly affect assets. For example, roads may be damaged by flooding or changes in temperatures may affect the production of renewable energy.
3. Vulnerability assessment: we determine the vulnerability of the assets to identified climate risks. This involves considering the age of the infrastructure, the existing protection systems and the capacity to adapt. We analyse existing contracts with partners and suppliers to identify clauses related to liability for climate damage.
4. Financial impact analysis: we quantify the possible financial impacts of climate risks. This may include estimating repair costs, loss of income due to interruption of operation.
5. Mitigation and adaptation assessment: we identify mitigation and adaptation measures available to reduce climate risks. This may include implementing road drainage systems or investing in more climate-resilient technology.

(2) Describe how this process is integrated into your overall risk management

Once the analysis and evaluation of climate risks is carried out, they are integrated into the general risk matrix of the assets and are periodically reviewed by the Risk Committee.

☑ (B) Yes, we have a process to manage climate-related risks

(1) Describe your process

We are in the process of integrating climate risk management into the long-term investment strategy. We will include the revision of the portfolio based on the evolution of climate risks and the updating of internal policies and procedures. For proper management, it is important to transparently communicate to investors and stakeholders the measures we are taking to address climate risks and promote sustainability in the assets. Likewise, we will carry out continuous monitoring to evaluate the effectiveness of the mitigation and adaptation measures implemented and if necessary, adjust our strategy. We are already in the process of recruiting experts in climate change, climate engineering, sustainable finance and environmental law for specialized guidance in identifying and managing climate risks.
